

Missy Raines & The New Hip

"Raines' vocals bring a gorgeous, nurturing confidence."

-No Depression

"A seductive amalgam of folk, country, bluegrass, and rock, recalling the earliest platters by Lucinda Williams and Rosanne Cash." -ICON Magazine

"Raines is not only a superb bassist but also an excellent singer, with a matter-of-fact, low-key delivery, that's sometimes hushed, sometimes seductive, sometimes channeling a simmering unease."

-New York Music Daily

With a smokey and seductive alto, 7 Time IBMA Bass Player of the Year, Missy Raines, heads up this quartet, featuring mandolin, guitars, bass, and drums. The territory The New Hip covers is broad and the compass is set by Raines, planted right in the center of the stage directing with her bass every bit as much as she's playing it.

Missy is currently working on her 3rd album for Compass Records to be released in 2016. The new project will feature mostly original songs from Raines. With Jake Stargel, David Benedict, and Cody Martin, the sounds are lush, the groove is thick, and the songs memorable.